Special clause on sexual harassment complaints: Complaints about any sexual harassment shall be made to the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) constituted under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013.

The Whistleblower: Whistleblowers are not to act on their own in conducting any investigation. Even if stakeholders only suspect misconduct, reporting of the same is essential. The Whistleblower shall cooperate with the actions and procedures conducted by the Whistle Blower Committee on such concerns.

Whistleblowers may make their disclosures anonymously.

Reporting: If any stakeholder has reason to believe that he/she has become aware of any concern or misconduct of any nature as shared above, he/she must immediately report those facts to their immediate superior or email concerns to whistleblower@onmobile.com (the email will be acknowledged through an auto mailer). Any Whistleblower desirous of having direct access in case of a special circumstance to the Chairman of the Audit Committee may send a mail directly to Mr. Sanjay Kapoor, Chairman of the Audit Committee at sanjaykapoor2802@gmail.com.

Discrimination, Retaliation or Harassment: Whistleblowers must not suffer any detrimental treatment as a result of raising a concern. Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, disciplinary action, threats or other unfavorable treatment connected with raising a concern. If the Whistleblower believes that he/she has suffered any such treatment, they should inform the Whistleblower Committee immediately. The Company strictly prohibits any discrimination, retaliation or harassment against any Whistleblower and any individual involved in such conduct shall be subject to disciplinary action.

Treatment against False Complaints: A whistleblower who knowingly makes a false complaint or allegation shall be subject to corrective or disciplinary action, up to and including but not limited to penalty, suspension and termination of employment contracts or vendor/procurement contracts or contracts of any other nature and such shall be in adherence with the rules, procedures and policies of the Company. Further, protection under this policy would not mean protection from corrective or disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a whistleblower knowing it to be false or with a mala fide intention.

Additional Enforcement Information: In most cases the whistleblower should not find it necessary to alert anyone externally. However, in addition to the Company's internal complaint procedure, employees and stakeholders should also be aware that certain law enforcement agencies are authorized to review questionable accounting or auditing matters, or potentially fraudulent reports of financial information. Nothing in this policy is intended to prevent an employee from reporting information to the appropriate agency when the employee has reasonable cause to believe that the violation of a statute or regulation has occurred.

Applicability of Local Laws: In instances where local law contradicts the policy, the local law shall take precedence and prevail over this policy. In instances where this policy is more restrictive than the applicable rules and regulations under the Companies Act 2013, as amended, then the stakeholders are required to abide by this policy even when it imposes requirements that go beyond legal obligations. If whistleblowers believe that there are conflicting legal obligations, they must take up the same with the Group Global CFO at sanjay.baweja@onmobile.com.
